Take your Spanish to the next level by completing your Spanish language requirement abroad this summer in Salamanca, Spain. Salamanca is a beautiful, thriving university town, approximately two hours from Madrid. Students are drawn to this city not only for its beautiful architecture, but also for its lively social atmosphere. Designated as a Cultural Capital of Europe in 2002, Salamanca provides a wonderful ambience for students from all over the world. From the Plaza Mayor to the Catedral Nueva to the Casa de las Conchas, Salamanca will not fail to impress.

Wake Forest's Department of Romance Languages offers a summer program to complete the Spanish language requirement in Salamanca, Spain, the site of the semester/year-long Wake Forest study abroad program. This is an ideal program for students who have completed SPA 153 or 154 and wish to complete SPA 212 abroad. Students also have an option to take SPA 303 which would go toward the Spanish major or minor. Students live with Spanish families selected by Cursos Internacionales of the University of Salamanca. The immersion setting provides the best environment for improving language skills and furthering cultural knowledge.

Program excursions include a 3 day trip to the north of Spain where students will visit a cathedral in Burgos, the Guggenheim in Bilbao, the beaches of Santander, castles, convents and more. Upon arrival to Spain, the program begins with 4 days in Madrid touring the Prado Museum, the Royal Palace, and other highlights of Madrid and includes day trips to Toledo and El Escorial on the way to Salamanca. Prerequisites: Three semesters of Spanish or equivalent (SPA 153 or 154) is required.
